13. The C.B.A. and/or Trust Indenture requires the Employer to submit contribution reports setting forth the hours that each of its employees worked and the amount of contributions due pursuant to the rate schedules set forth in the C.B.A. for all work performed by its employees covered by the C.B.A. and to remit such monetary contributions in accordance with the C.B.A. and the rules and regulations established in the Trust Indenture.

16. These amounts described in paragraph 15 above are due and owing to the Funds and Union and have been self reported by the Employer or estimated by the Funds and are subject to audit by the Funds and/or Union.

17. The Employer's failure, refusal or neglect to remit the proper contributions, reports and dues check-off to the Plaintiffs constitutes a violation of the C.B.A. between the Employer and the Union wherein the Funds are third party beneficiaries.

of ten (10%) percent of the total delinquency and the reasonable cost of auditing services and legal fees in the amount of fifteen (15%) percent of the delinquent amount.

23. Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132) provides that upon a finding of an employer violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1145) which requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of collective bargaining agreements, the Court shall award payment to a plaintiff Fund of the unpaid fringe benefit contributions, plus statutory damages and interest on the unpaid principal amount due both computed at a rate set forth in the United States Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Section 6621), together with reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and disbursements incurred in the action.

the participants and beneficiaries and other contributing employers of the benefit plan in the form of lower benefits and higher contribution amounts.

25. Accordingly, the Employer is liable to Plaintiffs under the C.B.A and any Trust Indenture concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions and under Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1132 and 1145) due to the failure to pay contributions when they are due.

32. The financial integrity of the plaintiff funds and the allocation of proper eligibility and credit to the members is determined and are based upon prompt and accurate remittance of reports and fringe benefit contributions from the Employer.

33. Plaintiff Funds have no adequate remedy at law to ensure that the Employer will adhere to their continuing statutory and contractual obligations.

34. The failure of the Employer to promptly remit reports and payment will cause plaintiffs immediate and irreparable injury unless the Employer and it's officers, agents and servants are enjoined from failing, refusing or neglecting to submit the required current monetary contributions and reports to plaintiffs.

35. By reason of the foregoing, plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction enjoining the Employer from any further or future violations of this or subsequent collective bargaining agreements with plaintiff Union, as such agreements apply to the obligation of Employer to plaintiffs herein
